

US Geography and Regions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 3

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which statement about the Great Lakes is true?

- A) They are all located entirely within the United States.
- B) Lake Superior is the largest Great Lake by surface area.
- C) The Great Lakes border the Southwest region.
- D) There are six Great Lakes in total.

2. A student says the Rocky Mountains are in the Southeast region. What is wrong with this statement?

- A) The Rocky Mountains are in the Northeast region.
- B) The Rocky Mountains are in the Midwest region.
- C) The Rocky Mountains are in the West region.
- D) There are no mountains called the Rocky Mountains.

3. Which river flows through the Midwest and is a major tributary of the Mississippi River?

- A) Colorado River
- B) Columbia River
- C) Ohio River
- D) Rio Grande

4. Which pair correctly matches a landform with its description?

- A) Plain: a high area with steep sides
- B) Valley: a flat area with no trees
- C) Mountain: a low area between hills
- D) Plateau: a raised flat area with steep sides

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The _____ River is one of the longest rivers in the western United States.
2. Alaska is the _____ state in the United States by land area.
3. The Midwest region is sometimes called the _____ of America because of its many farms.
4. The _____ Mountains are older and shorter than the Rocky Mountains.
5. The border between the United States and _____ runs through four of the Great Lakes.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which statement about the Great Lakes is true?

- A) They are all located entirely within the United States.
- B) Lake Superior is the largest Great Lake by surface area.
- C) The Great Lakes border the Southwest region.
- D) There are six Great Lakes in total.

2. A student says the Rocky Mountains are in the Southeast region. What is wrong with this statement?

- A) The Rocky Mountains are in the Northeast region.
- B) The Rocky Mountains are in the Midwest region.
- C) The Rocky Mountains are in the West region.
- D) There are no mountains called the Rocky Mountains.

3. Which river flows through the Midwest and is a major tributary of the Mississippi River?

- A) Colorado River
- B) Columbia River
- C) Ohio River
- D) Rio Grande

4. Which pair correctly matches a landform with its description?

- A) Plain: a high area with steep sides
- B) Valley: a flat area with no trees
- C) Mountain: a low area between hills
- D) Plateau: a raised flat area with steep sides

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The Colorado River is one of the longest rivers in the western United States.
2. Alaska is the largest state in the United States by land area.
3. The Midwest region is sometimes called the breadbasket of America because of its many farms.
4. The Appalachian Mountains are older and shorter than the Rocky Mountains.
5. The border between the United States and Canada runs through four of the Great Lakes.