

Cursive Fluency

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which strategy helps you maintain legibility while increasing cursive speed?

- A) Gripping the pencil tighter
- B) Practicing the same passage multiple times
- C) Skipping difficult letters entirely
- D) Using unlined paper for every assignment

2. Why do some cursive uppercase letters not connect to the next letter?

- A) Because uppercase letters are never used in cursive
- B) Their ending strokes do not lead naturally into the next letter
- C) Students are not allowed to connect them
- D) They are always written in print instead

3. A student notices their cursive slants in different directions. What should they practice?

- A) Writing larger letters only
- B) Keeping a consistent slant angle for every letter
- C) Removing all slant and writing straight up
- D) Changing the slant for each paragraph

4. What is the biggest benefit of writing fluently in cursive?

- A) It uses more ink than print
- B) It lets you take notes and write essays faster
- C) It only works for short words
- D) It replaces the need for spelling practice

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A rubric for cursive fluency might score neatness, speed, and letter _____ .
2. Writing the same sentence three times and comparing them is a useful _____ exercise.
3. Cursive fluency is achieved when writing feels automatic and _____ .
4. Peer review means asking a _____ to check if your cursive is readable.
5. Setting a personal goal, such as writing one full page, builds cursive _____ .

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which strategy helps you maintain legibility while increasing cursive speed?

- A) Gripping the pencil tighter
- B) Practicing the same passage multiple times
- C) Skipping difficult letters entirely
- D) Using unlined paper for every assignment

2. Why do some cursive uppercase letters not connect to the next letter?

- A) Because uppercase letters are never used in cursive
- B) Their ending strokes do not lead naturally into the next letter
- C) Students are not allowed to connect them
- D) They are always written in print instead

3. A student notices their cursive slants in different directions. What should they practice?

- A) Writing larger letters only
- B) Keeping a consistent slant angle for every letter
- C) Removing all slant and writing straight up
- D) Changing the slant for each paragraph

4. What is the biggest benefit of writing fluently in cursive?

- A) It uses more ink than print
- B) It lets you take notes and write essays faster
- C) It only works for short words
- D) It replaces the need for spelling practice

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A rubric for cursive fluency might score neatness, speed, and letter formation .
2. Writing the same sentence three times and comparing them is a useful practice exercise.
3. Cursive fluency is achieved when writing feels automatic and natural .
4. Peer review means asking a classmate to check if your cursive is readable.
5. Setting a personal goal, such as writing one full page, builds cursive endurance .