

Cursive Fluency

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which question is most useful when evaluating your own cursive writing?

- A) Did I use my favorite pen color?
- B) Can someone else read every word I wrote?
- C) Is my paper decorated with drawings?
- D) Did I finish before everyone else?

2. A student writes neatly but very slowly. What is the best next step?

- A) Stop practicing cursive altogether
- B) Set a gentle timer and try to write a bit faster each week
- C) Make letters much bigger to fill time
- D) Copy only single letters instead of words

3. How can a checklist help you improve your cursive fluency?

- A) It tells you exactly what to write
- B) It lists specific areas like slant, size, and spacing to review after writing
- C) It replaces the need for practice
- D) It counts how many words you know

4. Why should you compare your cursive from different dates?

- A) To decide which paper to throw away
- B) To see which areas have improved and which still need work
- C) To prove that cursive is not important
- D) To make sure you used the same pencil each time

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A self-evaluation checklist for cursive might include slant, spacing, and letter _____ .
2. Asking a teacher or friend to read your writing is called getting _____ .
3. Identifying your weakest letter connections helps you focus your _____ time.
4. A portfolio of writing samples shows your growth and _____ over a school year.
5. Setting small weekly goals keeps you _____ to improve your cursive fluency.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which question is most useful when evaluating your own cursive writing?

- A) Did I use my favorite pen color?
- B) Can someone else read every word I wrote?
- C) Is my paper decorated with drawings?
- D) Did I finish before everyone else?

2. A student writes neatly but very slowly. What is the best next step?

- A) Stop practicing cursive altogether
- B) Set a gentle timer and try to write a bit faster each week
- C) Make letters much bigger to fill time
- D) Copy only single letters instead of words

3. How can a checklist help you improve your cursive fluency?

- A) It tells you exactly what to write
- B) It lists specific areas like slant, size, and spacing to review after writing
- C) It replaces the need for practice
- D) It counts how many words you know

4. Why should you compare your cursive from different dates?

- A) To decide which paper to throw away
- B) To see which areas have improved and which still need work
- C) To prove that cursive is not important
- D) To make sure you used the same pencil each time

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A self-evaluation checklist for cursive might include slant, spacing, and letter size .
2. Asking a teacher or friend to read your writing is called getting feedback .
3. Identifying your weakest letter connections helps you focus your practice time.
4. A portfolio of writing samples shows your growth and progress over a school year.
5. Setting small weekly goals keeps you motivated to improve your cursive fluency.