

Making Inferences and Drawing Conclusions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Tara looked at her empty piggy bank and sighed. She picked up a "Help Wanted" sign from the store window. What can you infer?

- A) Tara is looking for a friend.
- B) Tara wants to earn money.
- C) Tara is bored after school.
- D) Tara enjoys collecting signs.

2. The park ranger closed the hiking trail and warned visitors about a recent wildfire. What conclusion can you draw?

- A) The trail is being repainted.
- B) The wildfire made the trail unsafe.
- C) The ranger prefers the other trail.
- D) Visitors do not like hiking anymore.

3. "I can't believe I studied the wrong chapter," Derek muttered as he stared at the test. What can you infer about Derek?

- A) He is well prepared for the test.
- B) He does not care about his grades.
- C) He is upset because he studied the wrong material.
- D) He finished the test early.

4. Mrs. Patel placed extra blankets and bottles of water in the car trunk before the long drive. What can you conclude?

- A) She is returning items to a store.
- B) She is preparing for an emergency during the trip.
- C) She is donating supplies to a shelter.
- D) She forgot where she put her luggage.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When you infer, you read between the _____ to find meaning the author hints at.
2. A character who always helps others can be described as _____.
3. Text evidence is a specific detail from the passage that _____ your inference.
4. Drawing a conclusion requires you to think about all the _____ before deciding.
5. If an author describes a setting as dark, cold, and silent, the mood is probably _____.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Tara looked at her empty piggy bank and sighed. She picked up a "Help Wanted" sign from the store window. What can you infer?

- A) Tara is looking for a friend.
- B) Tara wants to earn money.
- C) Tara is bored after school.
- D) Tara enjoys collecting signs.

2. The park ranger closed the hiking trail and warned visitors about a recent wildfire. What conclusion can you draw?

- A) The trail is being repainted.
- B) The wildfire made the trail unsafe.
- C) The ranger prefers the other trail.
- D) Visitors do not like hiking anymore.

3. "I can't believe I studied the wrong chapter," Derek muttered as he stared at the test. What can you infer about Derek?

- A) He is well prepared for the test.
- B) He does not care about his grades.
- C) He is upset because he studied the wrong material.
- D) He finished the test early.

4. Mrs. Patel placed extra blankets and bottles of water in the car trunk before the long drive. What can you conclude?

- A) She is returning items to a store.
- B) She is preparing for an emergency during the trip.
- C) She is donating supplies to a shelter.
- D) She forgot where she put her luggage.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When you infer, you read between the lines to find meaning the author hints at.
2. A character who always helps others can be described as kind.
3. Text evidence is a specific detail from the passage that supports your inference.
4. Drawing a conclusion requires you to think about all the evidence before deciding.
5. If an author describes a setting as dark, cold, and silent, the mood is probably gloomy.