Part A: Fix the Sentence

Each sentence has an error. Rewrite it correctly on the line.

1. Fix the sentence: The brave knight was too scared to enter the dark cave, so he ran home crying.

Rewrite: The brave knight took a deep breath and stepped into the dark cave.

---

2. Fix the sentence: "I want to go to the park" said Maria.

Rewrite: "I want to go to the park," said Maria.

---

3. Fix the sentence: The story had a problem but no ending. The dog was lost and that was it.

Rewrite: The story had a problem and a resolution. The dog was lost, but the children searched the neighborhood and found it at the park.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

---

Write the missing word or number on each line.

1. A narrative tells a story with characters, a setting, and events.
2. The main character in a story is called the protagonist.
3. The problem in a story is also called the conflict.
4. The ending of a story where the problem is solved is the resolution.

Part C: Short Answer

Answer each question in one or two complete sentences.

1. Why is it important for a story to have both a problem and a resolution?

A problem gives the characters something to work through, and the resolution shows how they solve it, which makes the story complete and satisfying.

2. What makes a character interesting to read about?

A character is interesting when they have clear traits and motivations, such as being brave or wanting to help a friend, because readers can understand why they act the way they do.
