

Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which opening line best hooks the reader?

- A) This is a story about a girl.
- B) One day something happened.
- C) The glass shattered, and Ava knew she had only seconds to hide.
- D) I am going to write about an adventure.

2. Why do authors use short sentences during action scenes?

- A) They are easier to spell.
- B) They create a fast pace and build tension.
- C) They save paper.
- D) They are required by writing rules.

3. Which revision improves "The food was good"?

- A) The food was really, really good.
- B) The crispy chicken melted in our mouths with a burst of garlic and herbs.
- C) The food was tasty and yummy.
- D) We ate food that was good to eat.

4. What is the best way to end a narrative?

- A) Stop writing when you run out of ideas.
- B) Write "The End" after the last event.
- C) Resolve the conflict and show how the character changed.
- D) Add a new problem for the character.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A flashback takes the reader to an event that happened in the _____ .
2. Varying sentence _____ keeps narrative writing interesting to read.
3. The narrator is the person or voice that _____ the story.
4. Foreshadowing gives the reader a _____ about what might happen later.
5. A satisfying resolution shows how the main character has _____ or learned something.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which opening line best hooks the reader?

- A) This is a story about a girl.
- B) One day something happened.
- C) The glass shattered, and Ava knew she had only seconds to hide.
- D) I am going to write about an adventure.

2. Why do authors use short sentences during action scenes?

- A) They are easier to spell.
- B) They create a fast pace and build tension.
- C) They save paper.
- D) They are required by writing rules.

3. Which revision improves "The food was good"?

- A) The food was really, really good.
- B) The crispy chicken melted in our mouths with a burst of garlic and herbs.
- C) The food was tasty and yummy.
- D) We ate food that was good to eat.

4. What is the best way to end a narrative?

- A) Stop writing when you run out of ideas.
- B) Write "The End" after the last event.
- C) Resolve the conflict and show how the character changed.
- D) Add a new problem for the character.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A flashback takes the reader to an event that happened in the past.
2. Varying sentence length keeps narrative writing interesting to read.
3. The narrator is the person or voice that tells the story.
4. Foreshadowing gives the reader a hint about what might happen later.
5. A satisfying resolution shows how the main character has grown or learned something.