

Idioms, Adages & Proverbs

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which pair of sayings give opposite advice?

- A) "Look before you leap" and "He who hesitates is lost"
- B) "Practice makes perfect" and "No pain, no gain"
- C) "Break a leg" and "Spill the beans"
- D) "Hold your horses" and "A watched pot never boils"

2. Jordan's grandma always says, "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree." She means that Jordan —

- A) should pick apples from the ground
- B) resembles his parents in behavior or personality
- C) needs to plant more apple trees
- D) lives too close to an orchard

3. Which of these is an adage rather than an idiom?

- A) Let the cat out of the bag
- B) Butterflies in my stomach
- C) Honesty is the best policy
- D) Kick the bucket

4. Lily tried to fix a leaky faucet by herself and made it worse. Her neighbor said, "Too many cooks spoil the broth" when more people tried to help. What does this proverb mean here?

- A) Only professional cooks should fix faucets
- B) Too many people involved can make a task harder, not easier
- C) Broth should not be cooked near a leaky faucet
- D) Lily should learn how to cook broth first

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. "He who hesitates is lost" means waiting too long can cause you to miss an _____.
2. "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree" is an adage about children being _____ to their parents.
3. "Too many cooks spoil the broth" warns that too many helpers can cause _____.
4. "The best of both worlds" is an idiom meaning you enjoy two _____ at the same time.
5. An idiom differs from a proverb because an idiom does not give _____ or state a general truth.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which pair of sayings give opposite advice?

- A) "Look before you leap" and "He who hesitates is lost"
- B) "Practice makes perfect" and "No pain, no gain"
- C) "Break a leg" and "Spill the beans"
- D) "Hold your horses" and "A watched pot never boils"

2. Jordan's grandma always says, "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree." She means that Jordan —

- A) should pick apples from the ground
- B) resembles his parents in behavior or personality
- C) needs to plant more apple trees
- D) lives too close to an orchard

3. Which of these is an adage rather than an idiom?

- A) Let the cat out of the bag
- B) Butterflies in my stomach
- C) Honesty is the best policy
- D) Kick the bucket

4. Lily tried to fix a leaky faucet by herself and made it worse. Her neighbor said, "Too many cooks spoil the broth" when more people tried to help. What does this proverb mean here?

- A) Only professional cooks should fix faucets
- B) Too many people involved can make a task harder, not easier
- C) Broth should not be cooked near a leaky faucet
- D) Lily should learn how to cook broth first

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. "He who hesitates is lost" means waiting too long can cause you to miss an opportunity.
2. "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree" is an adage about children being similar to their parents.
3. "Too many cooks spoil the broth" warns that too many helpers can cause confusion.
4. "The best of both worlds" is an idiom meaning you enjoy two advantages at the same time.
5. An idiom differs from a proverb because an idiom does not give advice or state a general truth.