

Research & Citing Sources

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word or number on each line.

1. A website's _____ tells you who is responsible for the information on the site.
2. The letters "https" in a web address show that the site uses a _____ connection.
3. A website that is trying to persuade you to buy something has a _____ purpose.
4. A search _____ is a tool like Google or Bing that helps you find websites on the internet.
5. A website that ends in .com is usually a _____ website and may be trying to sell products.
6. The "About Us" page of a website can help you learn about the organization's _____ and goals.
7. When a website was last updated is shown by the _____ at the bottom of the page.
8. A _____ database is a collection of articles from newspapers, magazines, and journals that a library provides.
9. Putting quotation marks around a phrase in a search engine finds pages with that _____ phrase.

Part B: Matching

Match each item on the left to the correct answer on the right.

1. Match each item to its correct answer.

A website ending in .gov	→ _____	Likely unreliable – anyone can edit without review
A website ending in .com with many pop-up ads	→ _____	Likely reliable – run by a government agency
A school library's online database	→ _____	Likely unreliable – focused on advertising revenue
A fan-made wiki with no	→ _____	Likely reliable – articles

Part A: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word or number on each line.

1. A website's author tells you who is responsible for the information on the site.
2. The letters "https" in a web address show that the site uses a secure connection.
3. A website that is trying to persuade you to buy something has a commercial purpose.
4. A search engine is a tool like Google or Bing that helps you find websites on the internet.
5. A website that ends in .com is usually a commercial website and may be trying to sell products.
6. The "About Us" page of a website can help you learn about the organization's mission and goals.
7. When a website was last updated is shown by the date at the bottom of the page.
8. A library database is a collection of articles from newspapers, magazines, and journals that a library provides.
9. Putting quotation marks around a phrase in a search engine finds pages with that exact phrase.

Part B: Matching

Match each item on the left to the correct answer on the right.

1. Match each item to its correct answer.

A website ending in .gov	→ Likely reliable — run by a government agency	Likely unreliable — anyone can edit without review
A website ending in .com with many pop-up ads	→ Likely unreliable — focused on advertising revenue	Likely reliable — run by a government agency
A school library's online database	→ Likely reliable — articles reviewed by librarians	Likely unreliable — focused on advertising revenue
A fan-made wiki with		Likely reliable —