

US Constitution

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Congress passes a law that limits freedom of speech. Which branch can stop this law?

- A) The executive branch by signing an order
- B) The judicial branch by declaring it unconstitutional
- C) The legislative branch by holding a new election
- D) No branch can stop a law once it is passed

2. The President vetoes a popular bill. What can Congress do to make it a law anyway?

- A) Ask the Supreme Court to sign the bill instead
- B) Override the veto with a two-thirds vote in both houses
- C) Wait until a new President takes office to try again
- D) Change the Constitution to remove the veto power

3. The President nominates a new Supreme Court justice. What must happen before the justice can serve?

- A) The House of Representatives must approve the choice
- B) The other justices must vote to accept the nominee
- C) The Senate must confirm the nomination
- D) The justice must win a national election

4. Why did the Founders create three separate branches of government instead of one?

- A) One branch would be cheaper to run than three branches
- B) Splitting power prevents any single group from controlling the government
- C) Three branches can pass laws faster than one branch alone
- D) The king of England required them to create three branches

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The power of judicial review lets the Supreme Court check the _____ branch.

2. A President can serve a maximum of _____ terms in office.

3. If the President breaks the law, the House can _____ the President.

4. Senators serve _____-year terms before they must run for reelection.

5. The President leads the _____ branch of the US government

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Congress passes a law that limits freedom of speech. Which branch can stop this law?

- A) The executive branch by signing an order
- B) The judicial branch by declaring it unconstitutional
- C) The legislative branch by holding a new election
- D) No branch can stop a law once it is passed

2. The President vetoes a popular bill. What can Congress do to make it a law anyway?

- A) Ask the Supreme Court to sign the bill instead
- B) Override the veto with a two-thirds vote in both houses
- C) Wait until a new President takes office to try again
- D) Change the Constitution to remove the veto power

3. The President nominates a new Supreme Court justice. What must happen before the justice can serve?

- A) The House of Representatives must approve the choice
- B) The other justices must vote to accept the nominee
- C) The Senate must confirm the nomination
- D) The justice must win a national election

4. Why did the Founders create three separate branches of government instead of one?

- A) One branch would be cheaper to run than three branches
- B) Splitting power prevents any single group from controlling the government
- C) Three branches can pass laws faster than one branch alone
- D) The king of England required them to create three branches

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The power of judicial review lets the Supreme Court check the legislative branch.
2. A President can serve a maximum of two terms in office.
3. If the President breaks the law, the House can impeach the President.
4. Senators serve six -year terms before they must run for reelection.
5. The President leads the executive branch of the US government.