

Main Idea & Supporting Details

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Kindergarten

Part A: Fill in the Blank

Read: Cats are clean animals. They wash themselves. They sleep a lot. They are quiet pets.

1. The main idea of the passage is that cats are _____ animals.
2. One detail is that cats wash _____.
3. Another detail is that cats sleep a _____.
4. Cats are described as _____ pets.
5. The passage has _____ supporting details.
6. The main idea is found in the _____ sentence.
7. The word 'quiet' in the passage is a supporting _____.
8. All the details in the passage support the idea that cats are _____.
9. The topic of the passage is _____.

Part B: Match the Words

Match each main idea to one of its supporting details.

1.

The sun is bright.	→ _____	They can be many colors.
Snow is cold.	→ _____	They have good stories.
Books are fun.	→ _____	It melts in your hand.
Flowers are pretty.	→ _____	It lights up the sky.

Part A: Fill in the Blank

Read: Cats are clean animals. They wash themselves. They sleep a lot. They are quiet pets.

1. The main idea of the passage is that cats are clean animals.
2. One detail is that cats wash themselves.
3. Another detail is that cats sleep a lot.
4. Cats are described as quiet pets.
5. The passage has 3 supporting details.
6. The main idea is found in the first sentence.
7. The word 'quiet' in the passage is a supporting detail.
8. All the details in the passage support the idea that cats are clean.
9. The topic of the passage is cats.

Part B: Match the Words

Match each main idea to one of its supporting details.

1.

The sun is bright.	→ It lights up the sky.	They can be many colors.
Snow is cold.	→ It melts in your hand.	They have good stories.
Books are fun.	→ They have good stories.	It melts in your hand.
Flowers are pretty.	→ They can be many colors.	It lights up the sky.